W.P.No.9266 of 2007

Oral Order: (Per Honourable Sri Justice P.Swaroop Reddy)

This writ petition is taken on file on the basis of a compliant filed by the petitioner alleging that her daughter aged about 13 years is missing.

2. As per the counter, the girl aged about 14 years married one S.Raju—3rd respondent. When she was produced before the court her statement was recorded. A copy of 164 Cr.P.C. statement is filed, wherein it was stated that she married 3rd respondent; that the family members of Raju asked her mother to give her in marriage to Raju and her mother refused for the same and her mother beat her and took from Hyderabad to Veltoor. She informed Raju about the same, that Raju came to Veltoor and took her to a temple where they married, that she was in third month of pregnancy, that the brother-in-law of Raju and his mother took her to police station and handed over to police; that police produced her before the Court; as she was willing to go with her parents and relatives, the girl was handed over to her mother after recording her 164 Cr.P.C. statement.

3. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the girl is again missing after handing over to the petitioner with whom she stayed only for one day and requested to take action.

4. The writ petition has become infructuous since the girl was traced out, produced before the Court and handed over to her mother.

5. The mother to whom the girl was handed over ought to have taken care to keep the girl in her custody. Further more, the 3rd respondent—Raju whom the girl allegedly married is said to be in judicial custody.

6. In these circumstances, no further orders need to be passed in this writ petition and it is accordingly dismissed.
